Library Training Sessions Available in February

While the IT Suite remains closed, the Trust Library is continuing to support staff learning and development by offering a range of training sessions throughout February via Microsoft Teams.

The sessions are short, practical and open to all staff, providing support with study, evidence based practice and day to day clinical and professional development.

February training sessions include:

- Finding the Evidence on 2nd February from 10.30am to 11.00am
- Medical Terminology on 4th February from 3.00pm to 3.30pm and 19th February from 3.00pm to 3.30pm
- Essay Writing and Referencing on 10th February from 3.00pm to 3.30pm
- Health Literacy on 11th February and 24th February from 10.30am to 11.15am
- Medical Terminology on 13th February from 10.30am to 11.00am
- Reflective Writing on 16th February from 10.30am to 11.00am
- How to Use NHS OpenAthens on 23rd February from 10.30am to 11.00am

Session topics include how to search for evidence across a wide range of resources, understanding medical terminology, communicating health information clearly to patients, reflective writing, academic writing and referencing, and accessing key online resources such as BMJ Best Practice and the Royal Marsden via NHS OpenAthens.

To book a place, please email wuth.library@nhs.net or visit the Library pages on the Trust website. If you are unable to attend the advertised dates or times, the Library team can arrange a session to suit your needs.
